

CALL FOR PAPERS
OHIO ACADEMY OF HISTORY
ANNUAL MEETING

CAPITAL UNIVERSITY
COLUMBUS, OHIO
26-27 March 2010

The Ohio Academy of History seeks papers in all fields of history: World, Latin America, Africa, Asia, Europe, and America. Papers may deal with subjects in any area or time period. Proposals focusing on historiography, methodology, pedagogy, public history are also welcome. Proposals may consist of individual papers or sessions organized around a common theme. The Academy welcomes discussion panels. Sessions generally include three papers (20 minutes each), a chair, and a commentator. The best papers will be refereed for publication in the Academy's Proceedings.

Proposals should include:

- title
- 150-word abstract of each paper
- short biography, resume, or curriculum vita of each participant
- relevant telephone numbers
- e-mail and mailing addresses

Those interested in serving as a session chair/commentator are encouraged to contact the Program Committee chair below with information about their area(s) of expertise.

Proposals should be submitted by 13 November 2009 to:

Marsha Robinson
Department of History and Political Science
Otterbein College
Columbus, OH 43081
e-mail MRRobinson@Otterbein.edu
tel 614-823-1564
fax 614-823-1315